1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: on page 104, line 4, "affecting" is misspelled. On page 109, line 1, "associates" should be changed to -associated-. On page 109, line 4, "additional" should be changed to -addition-. On page 113, line 8, the noted application is abandoned, and the continuation application(s)/patent(s) should be inserted in its place (note also page 119, line 26). On page 118, line 19, "a" should be deleted. On page 129, line 8, "resistor" is misspelled, as is "form" on page 131, line 3.

Appropriate correction is required.

2. Claims 174 and 175 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

There is no support seen in the originally filed application for the limitations of claims 174 and 175 (the description on pages 152-153, if this is where the support is supposed to be, does not describe what is recited in claims 174 and 175).

Claims 174 and 175 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McAlexander, III et al.
